2015 APPLIED GEOGRAPHY & SWAAG CONFERENCE
November 4-7, 2015
La Quinta Riverwalk ($129/night)
San Antonio, Texas

2015 APPLIED GEOGRAPHY & SWAAG CONFERENCE
November 4-7, 2015
La Quinta Riverwalk ($129/night)
San Antonio, Texas

Tentative FIELD TRIP Schedule

Wednesday, November 4, 2015
- San Antonio River Flood Management and Riparian Restoration
- Eagle Ford Shale and Fracking in South Texas
- San Antonio Missions
- San Marcos River – ESA Protection, Restoration & Recreation
- Institute of Texan Culture and Hemisphere Tower
- Edwards Aquifer Authority: Managing a Finite Resource

Thursday, November 5, 2015
- No Host Walking Tour and Dinner in El Mercado
- Evening Performance at the Majestic Theater

Friday, November 6, 2015 (after Luncheon Address by Dr. John Morris)
- Walking Tour of the King William District (led by Dr. Miguel De Oliver)
- San Marcos River – ESA Protection, Restoration & Recreation
- San Antonio Historic Preservation & Gentrification

Saturday, November 7, 2015
- San Antonio Missions Tour by Dr. Robert Garza
- Texas Gulf Coast- Corpus Christi, Padre Island National Seashore
- Texas Hill Country Wineries
- Culture Groups of the Texas Hill Country

For Additional Information:
http://applied.geog.kent.edu/
Jay Lee, Applied Geography Conferences, jlee@kent.edu
Murray Rice, Southwest Division, Association of American Geographers, rice@unt.edu
Richard Earl, Local Arrangements Co-Chair, Texas State University, re02@txstate.edu
Richard Jones, Local Arrangements Co-Chair, University of Texas at San Antonio, richard.jones@utsa.edu

Hosted by Texas State University &
University of Texas- San Antonio